Sl No	Section/Clause No/Page Nos	As per Tender Documents	Queries/Comments/Amendment requested	Reply/comments
1	III, SCC, Point 6.4 Clause (2), Pg No 61 of thje RFP document	Attendance certificates of site engineers/project Engineers/Team leader counter signed by SEE, Circle office.	Since, we are bound with number of works to be carried out as per bid documents, these works are also scattered, therfore it will be difficult to collect the attendance certificate from each division. Also, it will consume a lot of our work time, therefore it is requested to remove the clause.	Tender condition Prevails.
2	Terms of reference, Claose No 5.9.1, Pg No 42 of the RFP document	The Consultant shall field a Team of highly experienced and skilled professionals, who can handle the tasks in the most professional manner. The qualification and experience of the key personnel will determine technical qualification in the Least Cost selection (LCS) method. The proposed key technical personnel for the package and details are as under: Key Professional Staff who's C.V. will be evaluated: (a) Team Leader : 01 No (b) Project Engineers : 04 No's (c) Site supervisor : 19 No's	Since, it came to our notice that maximum field work has been already carried out by other agencies, we will engage the required nos. of exper as per the requirement of respective division and will carry out the assignement for the better satisfaction of BESCOM.	Tender condition Prevails.
3	GCC, Point 6, Claose 6.1, Pg No 57 of the RFP Document	The Consultant's total remuneration shall not exceed the Contract Price and shall be a fixed lump sum including all staff costs, printing, communications, travel, accommodation, and the like, and all other costs incurred by the Consultant.	Since, the consultants work is dependent on the contyractors work progress, we request BESCOM to increase the PMC cost propotionate to project cost if it is more than DWA cost.	Tender condition Prevails.
